CONTEXT

WHAT A SEASON COSTS

Full-time training, travel across half of Europe, accommodation, entry fees, equipment, physiotherapy and school on site. It is carried by the family, the federation and partners. Guide values from public sources:

UP TO

CHF 150,000

PER YEAR

for ambitious juniors at international level,
as stated by the president of Swiss Tennis.

AROUND

CHF 1 million

FOR A CAREER

from the first junior tournaments to the professional tour, according to the NZZ.

FROM

CHF 1,250

PER MONTH

for a place at a national elite sports school, depending on squad and place of residence.

Sources: NZZ, "Eine Million Franken für eine Karriere" (One million francs for a career), with figures from Swiss Tennis; public documents from Swiss Tennis and cantonal junior programmes. The values refer to Swiss junior elite sport in general, not to Levin's budget.
